Devoting much time and effort to making this annual the best yet, the staff has set in print this year's people, places, and experiences.

Following the customary procedures, this annual has pictures and script; however, their combination has given it a marked originality. Thus, following the tensions of deadlines and the difficulties of decisions, your 1963 memories are complete.

Therefore as our cardinal takes his pen in hand, it is with extreme pleasure and relief that we present to you your annual.

Dedication

In appreciation for many hours of work, fun, and worry, we the Class of 1963 wish to dedicate our Annual to a truly deserving person. In past years, many of us have become acquainted with her on the "Highlights" staff or in her U.S. History classes; a number of us have only known her as the teacher whom we have often seen in the publications room after school. This year she again has spent many afternoons helping us prepare the "1963 Cardinal Notes." Her service to this school as a teacher and advisor has been invaluable.

MRS. DUBOIS, because you have helped so many students to enjoy both learning and working, we hope that this dedication may in some way tell you what "thanks" cannot fully express.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

The Mentor High School Class of 1963 is commended for the production of its excellent year book. This presentation of classmates and events becomes more and more significant as the years pass. It is quite likely that information will be sought and references will be made to the treasured memories which are recorded upon these pages. Time will carry the members of this class through the important periods of life but none will be more cherished than the happy days spent at Mentor High School.

Dr. Edward Masonbrink
Superintendent of Schools

Principal

As you complete your final year of high school in this historic time, you have cause to review with pride and satisfaction the exceptional achievements of your class and school.

These successes and honors have been won through both individual effort and cooperative team work; through good guidance and instruction offered by parents and teachers; and by good use of the experiences and opportunities that come your way.

May your record as a class in high school be a forecast of similar success in the future as each of you continues his work in an adult life. Our nation and world need the service you have been preparing yourself to give.

Best wishes go with you as you live and work beyond Commencement.

Foreign Exchange Student

JUANITA EVANGELISTA

Coming from the Philippines, Juanita Evangelista, Mentor's third foreign exchange student, quickly endeared herself to her classmates.

"Nita's" warm smile readily revealed her charming and gracious personality. Her eagerness to learn about American ways made her a favorite with students and teachers alike. Delighting everyone with her stories, displays and native dances, Nita told of her homeland.

She has enthusiastically participated in school activities. She was a Dean's assistant besides being a member of Student Council, Pep Club, and G.A.A. Also she was made an honorary member of the 1962 Homecoming Court and N.H.S.

In her own words, Nita described her stay in Mentor:

"Believe me, I can talk of the winds of February, the lovely blooms of May, the falling leaves of October, or the first blush of a September morn; but there is something in Mentor that makes me especially happy. There is something in Mentor that strikes my mind and heart. It is a feeling of loving your country - America - for the people like you are so generous, understanding, loving, and helpful.

"In parting from Mentor, I am leaving with you all my love; and wherever I shall be, I shall view you from afar.

"Thank you very much for everything."

SENIORS

JOSEPH SHUBER

Senior Class Officers

DOUGLAS PHILLIPS

Under the leadership of the Senior Class Officers the class of '63 has had an exciting and successful year. Joe Shuber, President, fulfilled his duties with an enthusiasm that sparked the entire class. Pat Tewksbury handled the minutes; Rick Osborne kept track of our finances; and Doug Phillips did a fine job as Vice President.

These officers were responsible for several important activities. The first was the annual Homecoming Dance. This required the organization of committees and plenty of hard work. The work was fun, the dance was a success, and the entire Homecoming was unforgettable.

The responsibility of raising money for the Annual and class gift was also theirs. They encourage the sale of parent sponsorships for the annual, set the pace for the magazine drive and sold Senior class pins. Other projects were also planned.

Much of the success of this Senior year is due to the leadership and enthusiasm of our officers.

WINI BOS

Wini Bos spent her Senior year in Solothurn, Switzerland, under the AFS student exchange program. In that country of Alps and edelweiss, Wini maintained a rigorous schedule of numerous required courses, and also found time to play the oboe in the school orchestra. However, her activities were not confined to academic chores. She found knitting, traveling throughout Switzerland and parts of Italy, and attending gay parties equally enjoyable.

A year of wonderful memories was shared by all upon Wini's return to Mentor.

Our Ambassadors

JENNY JONES

Spending the past summer abroad in Bremen, Germany, was Jenny Jones Mentor's first exchange student. Though in Germany only a few months, Jenny had many exciting experiences. Visiting other cities such as Cologne, Hamburg, and Berlin was fun as well as educational; however, she insists her favorite pastime was meeting people and learning their customs.

Home again, Jenny has shown slides to interested groups. The description of her trip has pleased many audiences. As she says the whole experience was "Wunderbar!"

Student Council

Susan Andrews, Vice President; Sue Harrison, Secretary; Annalee Hlanda, President; Scott Madsen, Treasurer.

During its Monday meetings, the Student Council, Mentor High's student government, had much to discuss. Of its many responsibilities, the most important was the coordination of the activities of the entire student body.

Several committees began to function immediately at the beginning of the school year. The organization of hall monitors and lunch line systems was the first action taken. A safety check for student drivers was then set up and permits issued. In order to enforce the rules, the council then chose a hearing committee. Finally, the representatives to the Area Student Council were elected.

When these responsibilities were taken care of, the Council set up service and fund raising projects. These included the sale of A.F.S. Christmas Cards, the collection of Christmas baskets for needy families, and the sale of basketball pins. This year the Student Council again proved itself to be an active, worthwhile organization.

Key Club

The Key Club is the only organization at Mentor High that is devoted solely to service for the school and the community. The club, sponsored by Mr. George Pitzer and Mr. Jerry Kindsvatter, is affiliated with the Kiwanis Club of Mentor. Membership in the organization is limited to a small percentage of the boys in the three upper grades.

Some of the services performed by the Key Club for the school are the raising and lowering of the flag and taking care of the bulletin board in front of the school. The Key Club also works with the Kiwanis Club on the pancake breakfast each year. The most important example of the work done by the Key Club is the Lorry Wheat Memorial. This is an award that is presented each year to an outstanding senior band member. To raise money for these service projects, the members of Key Club have done many things, such as selling fruit cakes.

Scholarship Club

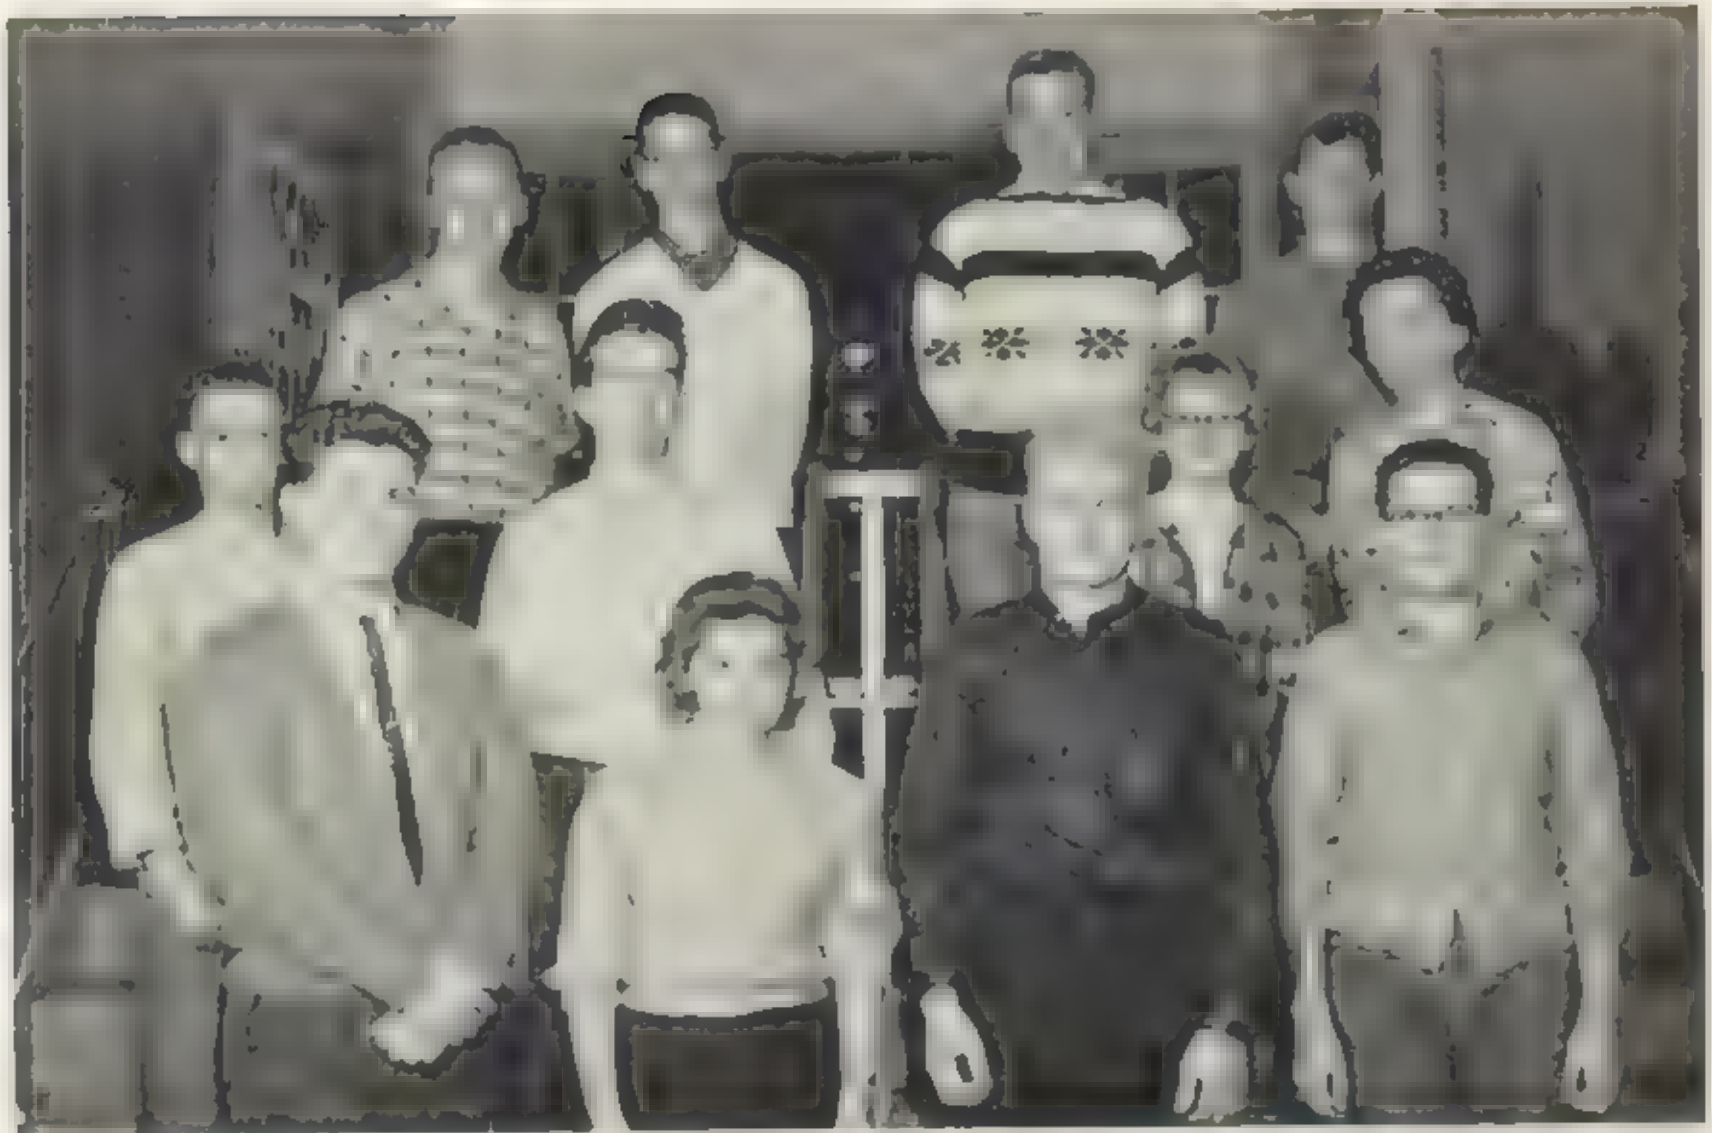

One quality which all members of the WMPW Scholarship Club share is academic ability. Each year the club accepts students from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes who have achieved an average of 3.5 or above. The total membership includes ten percent of boys and ten percent of the girls in each of the three classes. New members of the club are announced in September of each year.

President of the Scholarship Club for 1962-63 is Jeff Kalin. George Nurminen, who is vice-president this year, will assume the office of president next fall. Jenny Jones is secretary of the club, and Chuck Rabel is treasurer. A banquet held at Willoughby was the highlight of the year for the Scholarship Club.

Future Teachers of America

Bill Keller, Historian; Sue Koll, Treasurer; Carol Mezzacappa, President; Shirley Rohl, Secretary; Kay Hostetler, Vice President

The Future Teachers of America is an organization for all those students who are interested in teaching as a career. Members learn much about teaching through their monthly meetings and various projects.

The main feature of FTA meetings is usually a guest speaker from the field of education. Members can increase their knowledge of teaching careers by questioning these speakers.

One of the most important and interesting projects of the club is substitute teaching. Members of the club often substitute in the high school and at various elementary schools in the area. Students also help the teachers in our school by grading papers and doing other jobs that the teachers request. During American Education Week, FTA members give each teacher in the school an apple to show the students' appreciation for their work.

Each spring those who have earned the required number of points for service receive their pins.

Future Business Leaders of America

Susi Sykes, Treasurer; Doug Phillips, State President; Carol Jepson, Vice President; Phyllis Jepson, Secretary; Jim Wilkie, President; Nancy Klein; Recorder

The Future Business Leaders of America is one of our most active groups. This organization is open to students of the sophomore, junior, and senior levels who have finished or are taking at least one business course

Several of the projects undertaken by the Mentor Chapter of the FBLA are memberships in the National and State Chapters of FBLA, a yearly money making project, Christmas banquet, and Spring banquet. FBLA members are entitled to attend the State Convention at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Cleveland with Doug Phillips, 1962-63 state president, in charge. This convention consisted of contests, a banquet, and a dance.

At the end of each school year, the FBLA presents a gift to the school as a final achievement for the year.

Medical Workers of Tomorrow

Seated — Mrs. Margaret Ahlman, advisor.

Standing — Teresa Jesionowski, Secretary; Diane Kiefer, Treasurer; Mr. James McLaughlin, advisor; Dennis Gross, Vice President; and Linda Uhal, President.

To stimulate interest and develop knowledge in the fields of medicine is the purpose of one of the most active organizations at Mentor High School — the Medical Workers of Tomorrow.

This year, field trips, medical speakers, and movies accomplished this aim. On the lighter side members sponsored dances and fun-type community projects.

Thespians

Thespians is an honorary dramatic club. In order to be eligible for membership, a student must have had a part in one of the school plays or have worked on one of the various committees concerned with a production. Once a person becomes a member, he remains one for life.

Through dramatics a student learns how to plan his time, make many new friends, and expand his general knowledge. It enables a student to help in a production that will bring credit to his school and monetary gains as well.

Under the direction of Mr. J. Robert Jay, Mentor's amateur actors present a senior class, a junior class, and an all-school play during the course of the year. These presentations provide as much enjoyment for the students taking part in them as they do for the audience. Hidden talents are discovered and courage is strengthened through the efforts of this very worthwhile organization.

Varsity "M"

Dennis Fletcher, President; Joe Novak, Vice President; Greg Phillips, Secretary; Ray Wilson, Treasurer.

One of the oldest organizations at Mentor High, the Varsity "M", has only recently returned to its place as a fully functioning club. Any boy who has lettered in a varsity sport is eligible for membership. Under the direction of officers Dennis Fletcher, Ray Wilson, Joe Novak, and Greg Phillips, the club's constitution aims for the betterment of scholastic sports at the high school level.

Pep Club

Mentor High School Pep Club, symbolized by our Cardinal banner, continues to prove its importance in the school program

Besides showing support for our "Fighting Cardinals," the pep assemblies give the cheerleaders a chance to introduce new cheers and improve old ones

The only requirements for membership are a loud voice, ability to withstand harsh weather, and undying faith and love for the team and school. Pep Club ideals are shown when Mentor High School Students display sportsman like spirit

Log

Linda Gooding, Editor; Mr.
Wayne Hammond, Advisor

Appearing weekly in the MENTOR MONITOR is THE LOG, one of the news papers of the high school. On Wednesday after school, the LOG staff, under the direction of Mr. Wayne Hammond, organizes pictures and articles into a very interesting page of news. The editorial staff consists of editor Linda Gooding and assistant editors Pat Tewksbury, Linda Uhal Janice Flanigan, Jon Vaughan and Tom Atzberger

Qualities necessary to become a member of the LOG staff are ability in English and especially a willingness to work hard. Successfully assembling a page of news such as the LOG requires endless time and effort, but the reward is well worth it. The experience the staff gains from its work for the paper is invaluable.

Now in its sixth year of publication, the LOG attempts to afford a place for the expressions of student opinions and to keep the high school students and faculty, in addition to the community, up to date concerning school activities.

Hi-Lites

Carol Mezzocappa, Editor;
Mrs. Carol DuBois, Advisor.

Most students have gone home after school on Mondays when members of the HI-LITES staff can be found in the Publications Room, assembling their paper. HI-LITES appears in the NEWS-HERALD each Wednesday. Supervising the staff as they work to meet the deadline are advisor Mrs. Carol J. DuBois and Carol Mezzocappa, editor in chief.

Editors Betty Workman, Mary Anne Hadden, and Tim Levstik are assisted in the task of putting together the paper by a five-member editorial board. Those on the board, Linda Howie, Kay Hostetler, Linda Hood, Tom Tagliomonte, and Tim Miceli, have worked the entire year gaining experience in all the phases of organizing the paper. Lois Staudt and Jim Vaughan contributed art work. Sherry Kohler served as head typist.

Also gaining experience are the large number of students who report for the HI-LITES. They write up all news pertaining to sports, clubs and special school events. At the same time, they develop their sense of responsibility and increase their ease in meeting people.

Library Club

Returning this year to Mentor High is the Library Club. This club consists of about 75 members, all library assistants in either the main building or the annex. A training course is offered by this club in the duties of a library assistant. The club meets twice a month under the supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Fulton, school librarian.

An addition to the library has brought a greater amount of work for the members of this club. Officers are: Annabel Musselman, President; Judy Ross, Vice-President; Pat Phelps, Secretary; and Henry Grund, Treasurer. This is a service organization that it would be hard to get along without.

Girls' Athletic Association

G. A. A. is a club for sports-minded girls. Throughout the year various activities are supervised by the G. A. A. officers along with Miss Lynn Shupe and Mrs. Patricia Whyte. These activities include volleyball, basketball, soccer, swimming, tennis and others. The G. A. A. Banquet and Formal are two special activities which highlight the school year.

Rewards are given at the G. A. A. Banquet on the basis of the number of points received. The G. A. A. Formal is held during the Christmas season and is the only activity which boys may attend. The procedure for asking is reversed however, when the girls ask the fellows.

Members of the Girls' Athletic Association enter into many other activities; but, the real purpose of this club is to create good sportsmanship and team co-operation by offering various intramural sports.

Regular council meetings aid in the revising of the G. A. A. Constitution. Each year, plans for activities, points and awards are carefully discussed and gone over to insure a smooth schedule. G. A. A. is one of the most active clubs at M. H. S.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Junior Class

Tom Nelson, President; Tom Tagliamonte, Vice President; Sandy Humphrey, Secretary; Ron Clement, Treasurer

This year's junior class, like those of preceeding years, must face the problem of raising enough money for their Junior-Senior Prom this year and their annual that they will publish next year. Most of this money comes from the magazine drive, the refreshment stand at all home football and basketball games, and the junior class play which is presented during the winter. The junior class receives all the money for the pencils sold at school, also.

Presiding as president of his class for the past two years is Tom Nelson. Assisting him are Tom Tagliamonte, Sandy Humphrey, and Ron Clement.

As examples of leadership, responsibility, and scholastic achievement for everyone at Mentor High School, the Class of '64 can look forward to a full and rewarding senior year.

Sophomore Class

Curt Wagner, President; Jim Colgrove, Vice President; Emily Rhinehart, Secretary; Lynn Schleusener, Treasurer.

The Sophomore class, which is the largest in the school, is being led for the second time by Curt Wagner. He is assisted by Jim Colgrove, Emily Rhinehart, and Lynn Schleusener. With Mr. James McLaughlin, their advisor, these students plan the events for the year.

The main event sponsored by the sophomore class is the sophomore dance, which was held March 9. This class also looks forward to ordering their class rings this year.

The Class of 1965 can look forward to two more successful years at Mentor High. They have already shown their spirit and skill by selling the most magazines in the last two magazines drives.

Freshman Class

Dean Nicholas, President, Beth Chase, Vice President, Joyce Horvath, Treasurer, Marilyn Hoehn, Secretary.

One of the largest classes in the high school, this year's freshman class, needed competent leadership to get them off to a good start. They chose Dean Nicholas as their president. To assist him as vice president, they chose Beth Chase. Secretary was Marilyn Hoehn, and taking care of the money was Joyce Horvath.

Their biggest money making project was the magazine drive. This addition to their treasury will be important in their junior and senior years, when they will have to pay for the prom and the yearbook.

This year the freshmen were successful academically and athletically, and much is expected of them in the future.
